

PANGRAMS

A pangram is a sentence that uses all 26 letters of the alphabet. Here are some examples. Can you make up any of your own?

1.	The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.
2.	Pack my box with five dozen liquor jugs.
3.	Jackdaws love my big sphinx of quartz.
4.	A quick movement of the enemy will jeopardize six gunboats.
5.	Wafting zephyrs quickly vexed Jumbo.
6.	Crazy Fredericka bought many very exquisite opal jewels.
7.	Amazingly few discotheques provide jukeboxes.
8.	Sphinx of black quartz, judge my vow!
9.	Brawny gods just flocked up to quiz and vex him.
10.	The five boxing wizards jump quickly.
11.	Mr. Jock, T.V. Quiz Ph.D., bags few lynx.
12.	Quick zephyrs blow, vexing daft Jim.
13.	How quickly daft jumping zebras vex.
14.	Heavy boxes perform quick waltzes and jigs.
15.	Sixty zippers were quickly picked from the woven jute bag.
16.	We promptly judged antique ivory buckles for the next prize.
17.	Whenever the black fox jumped the squirrel gazed suspiciously.
18.	A quart jar of oil mixed with zinc oxide makes a very bright paint.