

George Speaks

by Dick King Smith

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

1. How did George get the things he wanted?

by crying

by shouting

by giving orders

2. What cereal did George want for breakfast?

porridge

muesli

cornflakes

3. George loved his grub. What does "grub" mean?

food

drink

toys

4. George told his mother the food he wanted for his birthday. What was this called?

recipe

menu

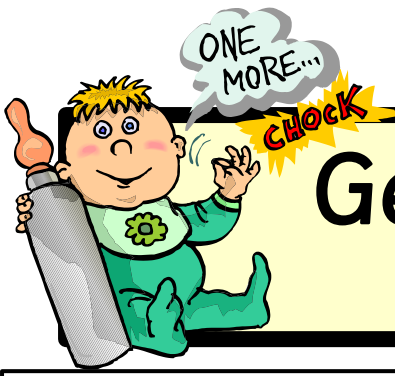

diary

5. How many teeth did George have by his first birthday?

ten

twelve

twenty

George Speaks

by Dick King Smith

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

6. How did George want his eggs for breakfast on his birthday?

boiled

fried

scrambled

7. What flavour of ice-cream did George want for his birthday?

banana

strawberry

Neapolitan

8. What did George want on the top of his birthday cake?

a toy

pink roses

sparklers

9. George said that “Quality is more important than _____”?

quiet

quarrel

quantity

10. If you have “a lot on your plate”, it means you are:

hungry

busy

heavy