

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

1. What subject came after break time?

music

art

PE

2. What was one of the things used to cover the tables?

paper bags

curtains

plastic sheets

3. What was the only thing left for the pupils to use for art?

paint

crayons

clay

4. What was the only colour paint left?

blue

green

pink

5. What kind of a picture had Bill to pose for?

landscape

portrait

still life

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

6. Was Bill happy to sit to allow the others to paint a portrait of him?

 yes no not sure

7. Before the art lesson, what spilled on Bill's frock?

 drink glue paint

8. Was it fair that Bill had to sit to allow the others to paint a picture of him?

 yes no not sure

9. If you were Bill, would you be happy to have to sit and not paint?

 yes no not sure

10. Mrs. Collins said that Bill looked gloomy. What does "gloomy" mean?

 excited nervous miserable

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

1. What subject came after break time?

music

art

PE

2. What was one of the things used to cover the tables?

paper bags

curtains

plastic sheets

3. What was the only thing left for the pupils to use for art?

paint

crayons

clay

4. What was the only colour paint left?

blue

green

pink

5. What kind of a picture had Bill to pose for?

landscape

portrait

still life

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

6. Was Bill happy to sit to allow the others to paint a portrait of him?

 yes no not sure

7. Before the art lesson, what spilled on Bill's frock?

 drink glue paint

8. Was it fair that Bill had to sit to allow the others to paint a picture of him?

 yes no not sure

9. If you were Bill, would you be happy to have to sit and not paint?

 yes no not sure

10. Mrs. Collins said that Bill looked gloomy. What does "gloomy" mean?

 excited nervous miserable