

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

1. What school subject came after art?

music

maths

history

2. What did Mrs. Collins want Bill to take back to the office?

book

laptop

key

3. The corridor was deserted. What does "deserted" mean?

packed

empty

noisy

4. In the corridor, Bill's mind was on the lavatories. These were the?

classrooms

cloakrooms

toilets

5. Bill chose to go into the girls' toilets because they were:

private

clean

nicer

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

6. After the lavatory, Bill was dawdling along the corridor. This means he was going?

quickly

slowly

quietly

7. Who was the first person Bill met on the corridor?

headmaster

caretaker

nurse

8. The headmaster knew that Bill was going on an errand. An errand is a?

tour

mistake

message

9. What did the headmaster ask Bill to take to the office?

paint

ink

glue

10. What kind of bottles was the ink in?

plastic

green

glass

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

1. What school subject came after art?

music

maths

history

2. What did Mrs. Collins want Bill to take back to the office?

book

laptop

key

3. The corridor was deserted. What does "deserted" mean?

packed

empty

noisy

4. In the corridor, Bill's mind was on the lavatories. These were the?

classrooms

cloakrooms

toilets

5. Bill chose to go into the girls' toilets because they were:

private

clean

nicer

Bill's New Frock

by Anne Fine

Colour the box with the correct answer under each question.

6. After the lavatory, Bill was dawdling along the corridor. This means he was going?

quickly

slowly

quietly

7. Who was the first person Bill met on the corridor?

headmaster

caretaker

nurse

8. The headmaster knew that Bill was going on an errand. An errand is a?

tour

mistake

message

9. What did the headmaster ask Bill to take to the office?

paint

ink

glue

10. What kind of bottles was the ink in?

plastic

green

glass