

Sequencing the Story

Cut out the fifteen events from the story and paste them onto two separate sheets in the order in which they happened in the story

Jane's mum was taking the washing off the line.

Jane and William had a fight.

Jane and Andrea walked to school.

William wrote in his News Book, "I don't like cats".

Jane's mum took William by the hand and brought him home.

Jane and Andrea met William, the new boy, and his dad.

William got lost.

Sequencing the Story

Jane and Andrea walked along the wall.

William and the other boys waited to get Jane after school.

William sat at the same table in school as Jane.

Furlong showed Jane and Andrea the way home along the wall.

Jane wrote in her News Book, "There is a new boy at our table. I do not like him".

William followed the girls on the wall.

Jane said to mum, "I don't want to go to school today".

William threw a stone at Furlong.

Taking the Cat's Way Home

Story Sequence (for teacher)

1. Jane and Andrea walked to school.
2. Jane and Andrea met William, the new boy, and his dad.
3. William sat at the same table in school as Jane.
4. William wrote in his News Book, "I don't like cats".
5. Jane wrote in her News Book, "There is a new boy at our table. I do not like him".
6. Jane said to Mum, "I don't want to go to school today".
7. William threw a stone at Furlong.
8. Jane and William had a fight.
9. William and the other boys waited to get Jane after school.
10. Jane and Andrea walked along the wall.
11. William followed the girls on the wall.
12. Furlong showed Jane and Andrea the way home along the wall.
13. Jane's mum was taking the washing off the line.
14. William got lost.
15. Jane's mum took William by the hand and brought him home.