

Proverbs

Set 2

A fool and his money are soon
parted

All that glitters
is not gold

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy

Bad news
travels fast

Blood is thicker than water

Better safe
than sorry

Children should be seen and not heard

Don't cry over spilled milk

Don't count your chickens before
they are hatched

Don't throw the baby out with the bathwater

Empty vessels
make the most noise

Fail to prepare,
prepare to fail

Finders

keepers, losers

weepers

Flattery will get you nowhere

Half a loaf is better than no
bread

Home is where the heart is

If at first you
don't succeed,
try, try again

If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen

In for a penny,
in for a pound

It's an ill wind
that blows no good

It's no use locking the stable door
after the horse has bolted

Jack of all trades, master
of none

Keep your friends close and your enemies closer

Laughter is the best medicine
