

Presidential Election Phrases

The following are phrases that you may hear in the media during a presidential election campaign. Find out what they mean.

debates	safe bet	vote management going forward	the front runner	on the campaign trail double standards	the grassroots	jumping on the bandwagon broken promises	red line issue	according to the tallymen on the hustings	swing voter	we've turned a corner too much spin	political suicide	too many spin doctors on the canvas	poor turnout	acting presidential empty promises	flip flopper	auction politics democracy	opponents	voter apathy	cast your vote landslide victory	on the doorsteps	a spoiled vote	financial backing