

Rivers of Ireland

Liffey
Barrow
Blackwater (Ulster)
Blackwater (Munster)
Deel
Inny
Moy
Mourne
Lagan

Avoca
Nore
Lee
Bandon
Brosna
Shannon
Erne
Finn
Boyne

Slaney
Suir
Blackwater (Leinster)
Feale
Suck
Clare
Foyle
Lwr. Bann
Upr. Bann

A river is large natural stream of fresh water which usually flows into the sea. The source of a river is the place where the river starts/rises. The mouth of a river is the place where the river flows into the sea. A river's course is the route taken by a river from its source to the sea.

Rivers of Ireland

Liffey
Barrow
Blackwater (Ulster)
Blackwater (Munster)
Deel
Inny
Moy
Mourne
Lagan

Avoca
Nore
Lee
Bandon
Brosna
Shannon
Erne
Finn
Boyne

Slaney
Suir
Blackwater (Leinster)
Feale
Suck
Clare
Foyle
Lwr. Bann
Upr. Bann

A river is large natural stream of fresh water which usually flows into the sea. The source of a river is the place where the river starts/rises. The mouth of a river is the place where the river flows into the sea. A river's course is the route taken by a river from its source to the sea.

Resources used in this file from:

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Educlips>