I bought one rose on Monday, one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday

I put three roses into the bouquet, then I put in two more

The lady placed five roses in the bouquet and then five more

The florist put just one single rose into the bouquet

There are six lovely red roses in the bouquet altogether

I had two roses and then I added two more roses

I had bought three roses and then I bought four more roses

I received two roses and then I received six more roses

The florist had no roses at all to put into the

I asked the florist for five roses and then I asked for four more

I received one rose on Saturday and another one on Sunday

The man put six roses into the bouquet but then took two out

There were nine roses in the bouquet but eight died

The lady placed five roses in the bouquet but then took two out

single rose into the bouquet but it died

There were ten roses in the bouquet and no-one took away any

The man asked for ten roses but didn't have money for two of them

There were nine roses in the bouquet but two withered

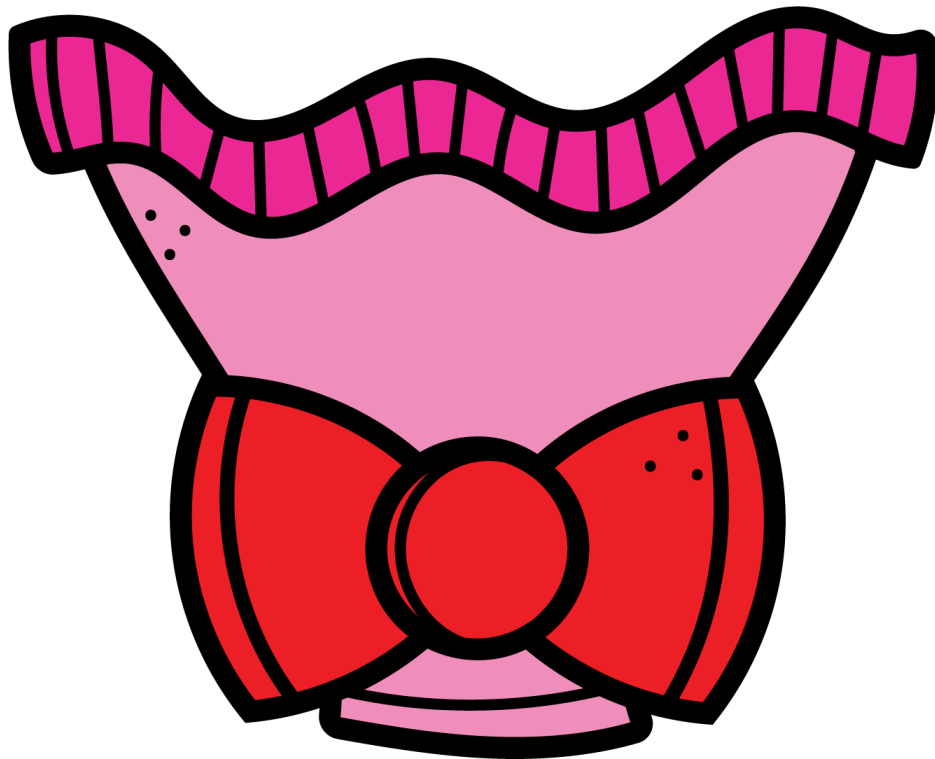

The lady placed five roses in the bouquet but then took three out

The florist put ten roses into the bouquet but then threw one away

There were seven roses in the bouquet but one withered

The man asked for ten roses but the florist only had five
