Listen Poems

© Seomra Ranga 2020 www.seomraranga.com

Listen Poems

This type of poem focuses on the aural. It also focuses on verbs. It follows a set pattern. Each verse has two lines. Line one is simply "Listen". The second line begins with "Can you hear" and ends with a verb ending in "ing".

Think of a situation/setting and describe the sounds that you hear in that environment in a "Listen" poem eg. the park, the swimming pool, the supermarket etc.

Writing Poetry

Listen – Morning in My School

Listen

Can you hear the infants playing?

Listen

Can you hear the children clapping?

Listen

Can you hear the telephone ringing?

Listen

Can you hear the tin-whistles screeching?

Listen

Can you hear etc. etc.

200000		1	77	••••••		1
11		4	ЦÏ			ŀ
-	Listen Poem	1	H		Listen Poem	-
		1
-			H	-		-
H			H	-	 	ŀ
		1	H	-		ŀ
				-
		4
H	 	1	Н	-		1
		H		-		1
			H	-
		P	A	-
			H	_
	By		1		Ву
1	Seomra Ranga				Seomra Ranga	ŀ
	© Seomra Ranga 2020 www.seomraranga.com				© Seomra Ranga 2020 www.seomraranga.com	1
7		١ ١	۱۴	7		۷

Resources used in this file from:

https://www.teacherspayteachers. com/Store/Hello-Literacy

https://www.teacherspayteachers.co m/Store/Creating4-The-Classroom

https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Clipartino