Night Time Noises Poems

Writing Poetry

This type of poem can have any number of verses. It follows a set pattern. Each verse has three lines. The first line of each verse is "Who is there?" The second line begins with "Is it" The third line is a continuation of the second.

Think of lying in bed at night and describe the sounds that you hear or sounds that you imagine you are hearing as you lie awake.

Night Time Noises

Who is there?
Is it the elderly banshee
stomping across the hill?

Who is there?
Is it the hungry mouse
nibbling on a crust of bread?

Who is there?
Is it Jo from up the road
coming home late again?

Who is there?
Is it a fire engine
rushing to the scene of a blaze?

Who is there?
Is it etc. etc.
