Sergei Prokofiev

Sergei Prokofiev (1891 – 1953) was a Russian composer, pianist and conductor. He is considered to be one of the giants of 20th century music. He composed ballets, film music, piano concertos and operas.

Peter and the Wolf

Peter and the Wolf is a musical composition written by Sergei Prokofiev in 1936. It is one of his most famous pieces. In it, the narrator tells the story while the instruments of the orchestra illustrate it.

Peter and the Wolf

Set in Russia, the story features different characters and each character is represented by different instruments. It tells the story of a boy named Peter who lives with his grandfather. Grandfather does not want Peter going out into the garden because there are wolves around. However, Peter disobeys his grandfather and goes out into the garden.
